NAIDOC Week Celebration 2025 – 23rd July 2025

Dear Parents and Carers,

St Marys South Public School will celebrate NAIDOC Week on 23rd July 2025. Students and staff are encouraged to participate in the day by wearing Aboriginal designs or mufti clothes that are red, black or yellow.

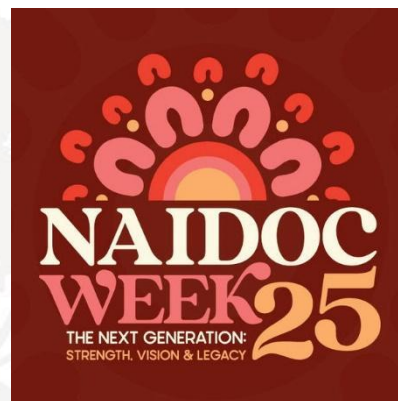

During the day, students will participate in various creative and practical Aboriginal activities, Including making and eating Johnny Cakes. An acknowledgement and Smoking Ceremony will be held at 9:05am, Parents and Carers are welcome to attend.

We expect that all students will participate fully in all activities. If you do not wish for your child to participate in the Smoking Ceremony or the food experience for health care reasons only, please use the opt-out section below.

Thank you.
